

OPEN CALL FOR SCHOLARSHIPS!

The 9th Asia Pacific Conference on Reproductive and Sexual Health and Rights (APCRSHR)

Ha Long Bay, Vietnam November 27-30, 2017

“Leave NO ONE Behind! Justice in Sexual and Reproductive Health”

ARROW is pleased to announce an open call for scholarships for delegates to attend the 9th APCRSR. APCRSR is a biennial gathering of sexual and reproductive health and rights (SRHR) practitioners, experts and researchers in the region to share information and good practices for scaling up and/or replication, to continue to expand and maintain relationships and alliances.

If you would like to participate in the largest convening for civil society in the region to discuss and address emerging sexual and reproductive health and rights issues and challenges as well as exchange knowledge with others who share the same passion, APPLY NOW!

WHO SHOULD APPLY

- Those who are interested to attend and participate in the 9th APCRSR
- Those from Myanmar (Burma), Thai/Myanmar (Burma) border, and Nepal
- Those from marginalized groups such as minority ethnic groups, economically disadvantaged or the LGBTIQ community
- Activist and practitioners from the SRHR field who would be able to return to their constituencies or countries and share the knowledge acquired in their respective field of work

WHAT WE PROVIDE

- Conference registration fees
- Travel and transportation including visa fees (return trip from home country – conference venue)
- Full board, lodging and meals
- Other related expenses
- Pre-conference orientation

Apply Here:

<https://form.jotform.me/71650707684462>

Submit your application by

4 JULY 2017